Budapest, 15th April 2019

Invitation: Workshop on Regions and Identity: Comparing Western Balkans and the Visegrad Four University Sarajevo, Faculty of Political Sciences

The Andrassy University Budapest is pleased to announce that the international "Workshop on Region and Identity: Comparing Western Balkans and the Visegrad Four" will take place on the 10th of May 2019 from 9 am at the Faculty of Political Sciences, University of Sarajevo in the Reading Room 106.

The workshop is part of an international project, funded by the International Visegrad Fund (IVF) and coordinated by the Andrassy University Budapest (AUB), which focuses on the impact of identity on the region's political and socioeconomic development. The aim of the workshop is to discuss the issue of identity in both regions, to identify similarities and differences. Academics, researchers, and experts working on identity aspects in both regions are presenting their research on the case studies of Hungary, Poland, Czech Republic, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Slovenia and Montenegro.
